

GREECE is A SAFE STUDIO

National Centre
of Audiovisual Media
and Communication

EKOME

Implements a successful strategy ensuring support for audiovisual production companies in Greece and abroad. During lockdown, we continued operating the cash rebate program without delays, with new submissions and payments

Cash Rebate in numbers

April 2018-July 2020

86€ million
total production
expenses in Greece

89 projects
supported

29€ million
total amount of return
to producers through the CR system

Over _____
26.500
people employed

Over _____
100 shooting
locations across Greece

Greece's transition to NORMALITY

MAY

Greece gradually lifted lockdown measures/
issued guidelines for
filming ensuring hygiene, social distance rules and safety during shooting

JUNE

Official beginning of tourist season

JULY

Direct international flights to the country's tourist destinations resume

No quarantine for guests. Only sampling tests and observance of safety protocols

Greece

is a country that offers

- ✓ attractive financial incentives
- ✓ highly skilled crews
- ✓ outstanding filming locations throughout its territory
- ✓ a unique opportunity for foreign productions to visit and shoot all over the country

INCENTIVES

CASH REBATE

increase to

on the eligible expenses for production of audiovisual works (film, TV series, animation, documentaries, digital games)

Increase in the Above the Line eligible costs to 35%

Simplification of procedures related to projects submissions and payments

TAX RELIEF

Activation of the incentive:

tax deduction of 30%
on the eligible costs for individuals and legal entities that choose to invest in audiovisual productions in Greece

TAX Reforms

Gradual reform of tax legislation and regulations with Covid-19 measures aiming to tackle the effects of the coronavirus pandemic (i.e. extensions of benefits, reduction of VAT rates on certain goods and services including transportation fees, reduction in social security contributions for self employed and free lancers) and to help support entrepreneurship, making Greece a more business friendly market

We invite you to visit our website, www.ekome.media

and contact us at communication@ekome.media

