

PRESS RELEASE

EKOME and Drama International Short Film Festival at Clermont-Ferrand

The National Centre of Audiovisual Media and Communication-EKOME and the Drama International Short Film Festival welcome the start of this year's period of international audiovisual production markets, joining forces in a targeted collective presence at the Clermont-Ferrand International Short Film Festival.

This strategic collaboration aims at the promotion of the Greek short film, placed among the most superior, most creative, and most competitive audiovisual projects of our generation.

Drama International Short Film Festival, thanks to its long successful course, supports and promotes in the most effective way the Greek creators works through a variety of actions, but, mainly, through the distinctions awarded at the annual Festival.

EKOME, as the main institution-supporter of Greek audiovisual production, embraces the Greek Short Film production through its collaboration with the Drama International Short Film Festival and the setting up of a digital booth at this year's Market of Clermont-Ferrand, which will operate within the framework of the Festival, between the 1st and the 5th of February 2021, supporting the work of the Greek shortfilm filmmakers, through targeted meetings, presentations, and a variety of activities.
